The play takes place in the three bedrooms of Ernest and Delia, Nick and Jan, and Malcolm and Kate.

The time is the present.

Act One

Saturday, 7pm.

Act Two

Continuous.

Trevor and Susannah, whose marriage is in crisis, create chaos wherever they go during one hectic night.

Bedroom Farce was first performed in London 25 years ago, and is currently enjoying a revival at the Aldwych Theatre, starring Richard Briers and June Whitfield.

The bar will be open before and after the performance, and during the twenty minute interval.
