Our next production will be the traditional pantomime, 'Sleeping Beauty', to be staged here in the Village Hall on Friday, 30th November in the evening, and Saturday, 1st December, with both an afternoon matinée and an evening performance.

If you would like to join the Players in any capacity, for the pantomime or subsequent productions, please get in touch after the show.

Our thanks to the Post office, the Flying Horse, and the Rose and Crown at Munday Bois for helping to sell tickets.

The action takes place in Suite 648 on the sixth floor of the Westminster Hotel, close to the Houses of Parliament.

It is about 8-30pm on a May evening.

Act 1

Junior Minister Richard Willey is preparing to take part in a crucial debate in the House of Commons, gathering together his papers as he phones his wife at home. But is everything as it seems? Could there be a skeleton in his cupboard?

Interval

20 minutes, when the bar will be open.

Act 2

The same. Immediately following.
